"Us? Damn you, de Serin. You think you're part of us, just because you pitch up in the woods and get everyone fawning over you?" He curses and writhes against the others' hands. "Best thing you could do for us is give us your corpse to sell to the swiving Hegemony."

You stare at the knot of outlaws pinning down the man who tried to kill you and know what you have to do.

- I kill the traitor myself, quickly and cleanly.
- I make a brutal example of him.
- I tell Zvad to kill him.
- I exile him from the band.
- I ask the full moot to decide his fate.

Monster of the Week! Roedra:

Type: Unstable

Height: 3ft 2in

Weight: 55lb

Life Expectancy: 22yr

Strength: Lightning Fast Movement

Roedra are electricity-based river serpents. Deceptively built like a towering sea serpent, this small fry whips through the streams and rivers of Crown Island while snapping down on fish and dazzling those that it misses with a barrage of sparks.

Roedra feed exclusively on fish, however, they find Humans, especially those they see as direct competition (for example, fishermen) as tremendous nuisances. It's not unusual to find these ankle-biters lunging at your feet or hissing from the rapids.

Feeding on fatty, red fish Roedra generally don't pose much of a threat, however, in times of high humidity and thunderstorms an amazing phenomena occurs. Roedra becomes able to swim freely in water and air alike, creating a rude surprise for those that live near their territory. Luckily Roedra has a glaring weak point - hammering the horn on its head will forever render it unable to use electrical powers or leave the waters ever again.
